

HOPES TO EXPUNGE RECORD OF DIVORCE

Remarkable Petition Being Prepared at Dying Wish of Mrs. Heinze.

ALWAYS LOVED HER HUSBAND

Had Delayed Getting Absolute Decree in Hope of Reconciliation.

New York, April 3.—The court that parted King, Augustus Heinze, the copper king, and his wife, Bernice, will be besought to restore her to him in death. It was Mrs. Heinze's dying wish that this be done for the sake of her child. Her lawyer, Benjamin F. Spellman, began preparation of a remarkable petition to-day, a few hours after his client's death, to expunge the record of the interlocutory decree already granted.

"I have always loved you, Fritz. I have always hoped something would happen to bring you back to me"—the dying woman's words of reconciliation with her husband, the deathbed scene, her tears and embraces, his assurances of love, his promise to try to fulfill her last wish—all these will be written into the jurisdiction of the State, together with the testimony, under oath, of Mrs. Heinze's mother, her sister and the nurses who stood nearby.

Never before has the Supreme Court of New York been petitioned to expunge the record of a divorce by a voice from the grave.

"Had she lived it would have been possible for Mrs. Heinze to discontinue this action," Mr. Spellman said to-day. "Because of her love for Heinze and her hope that something would bring about a reconciliation, she postponed taking the final decree, which might have been entered last month. She had only until April 17 to decide whether the decree would be taken. Again and again she told me: 'Wait, wait, that decree means death between my husband and me. To take it would tear my soul from its body.'"

"During the last minutes of her life she repeated over and over again the request that the record be expunged. I am convinced that there must be some method for the great chancellor to reach out and destroy or seal these records."

"I shall do everything in my power to see that her wish is carried out. The action is difficult and unprecedented because we are seeking not only to vacate the interlocutory judgment, but to do it by the words of a plaintiff whose words come from the tomb," speaking of Mrs. Heinze, Mr. Spellman said.

"She was only twenty-nine. Sarah Bernhardt said her genius was of such a high and rare kind that it was hard to find a play in these days that gave her full opportunity for her powers. Sarah Bernhardt told her she would one day succeed to her place on the stage."

"Mrs. Heinze leaves a very valuable manuscript for a play in which she was to have appeared next fall. Several managers who read it are seeking the privilege to produce it."

Heinze arranged to-day to have the body of his wife sent to Toledo for burial. He will take their infant son and maintain and educate him.

Governor Sends Contribution.
Lynchburg, Va., April 3.—Governor Mann this evening telegraphed his contribution of $1,000 here to rebuild the bridge to the Y. M. C. A. island playground, advising the association that his contribution follows by mail. The bridge was washed away last week.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH PIMPLES

Spread All Over Face and Hands, Great Ugly Looking Sores, Itched and Burned Badly. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

805 Ricker St., Houston, Tex.—"My trouble began with very small pimples on the face, then went to my back and the pimples began to get larger and larger with that awful itching that I can hardly describe. The pimples were full of white matter and when I scratched them they spread all over my face and hands and made great ugly looking sores. They itched badly and had a burning sensation to them that made me feel like I was on fire. Every scratch made a place that looked like a well, and my face was disfigured. They itched and burned so badly that I could not refrain from scratching, keeping it so that it looked as if I had small-pox all of the time. My clothes made me so miserable and irritated so much that I had to try not to wear any more than I could help."

"I tried everything that I could hear about in hope of relief which came for a time but did not last long. Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used Cuticura Soap in hot water freely during the day and kept the sores covered in Cuticura Ointment all of the time, never letting them become dry. I kept up the treatment six months and was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Alice Stone, Apr. 5, 1912.

A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient to cure all skin diseases. Cuticura Soap 25c. and Ointment 50c. are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 25-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

For tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

WILL ERECT BIG FACTORY ANNEX

New Home of Export Leaf Tobacco Company Already Outgrown Plant.

Before it has completed the first year of operation of its extensive new factory at Lombardy and Leigh Streets, the Export Leaf Tobacco Company finds that, while planned for large future growth, it is already inadequate to meet the demands of a growing business. A permit was issued yesterday by Building Inspector Butler for an annex, to be erected at once, to cost $25,000.

Other building permits were issued yesterday as follows:

W. A. Stansbury, to repair frame dwelling, 224 Temple Street.

Life Insurance Company of Virginia, to repair brick store, 569 East Broad Street, to cost $12,000.

Broad Street Bank, to repair brick store, 205-219 North Sixth Street, to cost $154.

J. T. Temple, to erect a detached three-story brick store, 116 East Broad Street, to cost $15,000.

Double Wedding Ceremony.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Harrisonburg, Va., April 3.—The home of Joseph H. Wetzel, in Brocks Gap, was the scene of a double wedding a day or two ago—Frank Nesselrodt, fifty-three years old, and Miss Hannah Crider, forty-six years old, and Samuel Halterman, twenty-eight years old, and Miss Jennie Sites, twenty-three years. Rev. L. D. Caldwell was the officiating minister.

FUROR IS RAISED BY HAMMERSTEIN

Foreign Artists Do Not Relish His Attacks on Their Morality.

Paris, April 3.—The cable reports of Oscar Hammerstein's attack on the morality of foreign operatic artists, made in his address to the Woman's Press Club, of New York, raised a riot here to-day.

"I really don't know whether to laugh or get angry," said Vannie Marcoux, the well known baritone, lately of the Boston Opera House, when interviewed. "The prejudice against stage people among so-called good elements of society is often hard to endure, but when Hammerstein joins the crusade against the supposedly immoral atmosphere surrounding the stage, one feels relieved, for an element of humor is added to the situation. I have sung the world over and say unreservedly that, whether American or European, the moral status of artists does not vary an iota."

Anna Pavlova, the popular singer, who appeared for the first time in Paris to-night, said: "So far as my experience goes, the moral atmosphere of the American opera house compares favorably with European lyric theatres, and the morality of opera houses in general is quite as good as that of other places."

Lucienne Breval, leading soprano at the Paris Opera House, said with a disdainful shrug of her shapely shoulders: "If your American singers take back good voices after staying here, they take all the public has a right to require of them. Their private life concerns none but themselves."

M. Lalo, the most dreaded music critic in Paris, quite agreed with Mrs. Breval. He says: "Mr. Hammerstein's idea of founding an English opera house with American singers, is excellent, but why should he insult foreign artists?"

Mlle. Pavlova will return to America on an extended tour next autumn with Novikoff, the leading male dancer of Moscow, and thirty supporting artists. She will open her season with three performances at the Metropolitan Opera House.

MISS WILSON SEES REAL BOXING BOUT

Daughter of President Enjoys "Go" on Board Dred-nought Wyoming.

Washington, April 3.—Miss Eleanor Wilson, daughter of the President, who returned here to-day from Hampton Roads, Va., where she was a spectator of the Atlantic fleet's battle practice, boxing match last night on the deck of the big dreadnought Wyoming. Tom Hirschfeld and Walter Jones, the prize fighters of the Wyoming, were the principals. Miss Wilson said she enjoyed the bout very much. Six members of the Cabinet also saw the match.

Miss Wilson was initiated into the mysteries of a "Battle Royal," a game popular in the navy. Four blood-fisted men, with boxing gloves on their right hands and tin cans in their left hands, which they kept rapping on the floor, fought alternately. The winner is the man who can land the greatest number of blows, irrespective of the part of the anatomy on which they land.

After the game the enlisted men of the ship sang a song for the President's daughter and gave her a cheer.

Five of the six members of President Wilson's Cabinet, who went to Hampton Roads, Va., to see the battle practice of the fleet, returned to Washington late to-day enthusiastic over the work of the American gunners, but vowing they never again would get so close to twelve-inch guns in action.

Although they took precautions to protect their ears against the terrific detonations, they were still suffering to-day from temporary deafness and "ringing" in their ears. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo suffered the worst. The terrific noise aggravated an attack of neuralgia in his right ear, and he may have to seek relief from a specialist. The officials were within twenty-five feet of the big guns when they were fired.

The Cabinet party returned in the presidential yacht Mayflower and the Dolphin. In the party were Secretaries McAdoo, Lane, Wilson, Houston and Postmaster-General Burleson and members of their families. Miss Eleanor Wilson also returned with the party.

PULASKI HAS ONE CASE OF SMALLPOX

Measles Prevalent in State Convict Camp—Elks Install Officers.

Pulaski, Va., April 3.—Pulaski has only had one case of smallpox within the corporation limits. Deputy Rufus Richardson, who assisted in preserving peace in the Hillsville courthouse during the trial of Barnett Allen, and in which county there has been an epidemic of smallpox, has developed a very mild case. Only one other case is reported in the county, George Wright, at Newbern. The prevalence of measles in the State has been near the city led many to believe that the disease had broken out there, due to several prisoners having been brought to the road from Carroll County since the recent term of court.

The People's Bank of Pulaski has just undergone a complete remodeling, the front and interior of the building having been completely changed, making it one of the most attractive banking rooms in Southwest Virginia.

Jerry Farlow, son of Robert Farlow, of this place, was asphyxiated by gas at the iron furnace at Buena Vista yesterday. The young man left Pulaski on Sunday to accept a position with the company. He was twenty-two years of age. The body was brought to Pulaski last night for interment.

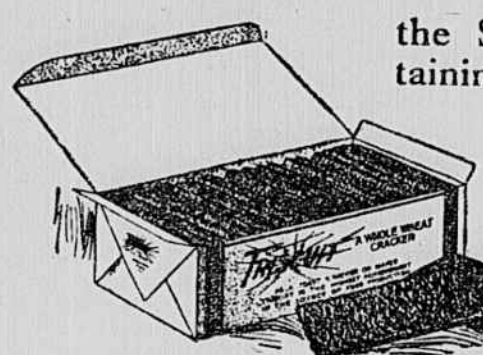

Pulaski Lodge, No. 1067, B. P. O. Elks, installed these officers to-night: H. L. Trolinger, exalted master; R. R. Moore, esteemed leading knight; H. W. Steger, esteemed loyal knight; W. A. Shuff, esteemed lecturing knight; W. W. Cave, secretary; O. P. Jordan, treasurer; W. C. Rudy, clerk; C. E. C. Peyton, trustee; O. C. Brewer, representative to grand lodge; R. Blockades, alternate. Following the induction into office, a social session was held by the membership.

Rev. Conley Greear, pastor of the Christian Church at Galax, has resigned on account of the ill health of Mrs. Greear. He has under consideration a call to Mountain City, Tenn.

NEWS OF SOUTH RICHMOND

MOTOR TRUCK LINE

Chesterfield Man Experimenting With New Transit Proposition.

Plans are being made by R. O. Mallory, of Chesterfield County, to establish a daily automobile service between the Southside and Sinkingwater section. The New Road will be the route taken by the rural transit line. Freight as well as passengers will be handled. A trial trip was made yesterday and considerable patronage was given the promoter. The car to be used is a motor truck, which has seats for several passengers in front, while the rear will be fixed according to the amount of business done during the first few weeks. One round trip will be made each day.

SALE OF NEWSPAPERS IS VIOLATION OF LAW

Police Justice Makes Drastic Ruling in Enforcing Sunday "Blue" Laws.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., April 3.—Police Justice Barron this morning decided that the sale of newspapers on Sunday is a violation of the statute, whether the papers are sold on the streets or delivered at the homes. In accordance with this ruling he fined G. M. Novitsky, a news dealer, $5 and costs. The latter appealed the case to the Corporation Court.

The charges against J. M. Fentress, of the Montauk Ice Cream Company; P. Morgan Fussell, of the Fussell Ice Cream Company, and H. B. Rogers, of the Maryland Ice Cream Company, were continued until to-morrow morning, after the evidence in the cases had been gone into.

Justice Barron stated that in view of the fact that he had already decided that the sale of ice cream and soda water and the usual things sold at a soda fountain were not necessary on Sunday, the question on which the cases of the manufacturers and wholesale dealers will hang is whether they have the right to contract on Saturday to deliver cream on Sunday.

P. Morgan Fussell, of the Fussell Ice Cream Company, stated that he delivered no cream to stores last Sunday, his only orders being delivered to the hospitals and to private families. He argued that in delivering to the former he was doing a work of necessity, in that ice cream, in the cases of fever, is necessary to the hospital patients. As to the delivery of cream to homes, Mr. Fussell contended that in doing this his firm was simply acting as an agent of the householder in doing a part of the household work.

It was contended by all of the ice cream dealers that it was a physical impossibility to deliver cream Saturday night and keep it fresh and frozen until Sunday.

The case against Joseph Salvatore, proprietor of the Monticello Barber Shop, was dismissed, owing to lack of evidence.

Justice Barron did not press on the right of the barber shops to do business on Sunday, however, and the question as to whether or not the conducting of a barber shop is in violation of the law is still open to discussion.

M'BEAN MAKES LOW PRICE ON TUNNEL

He Offers to Put Tube Under North River for $6,750,000.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, April 3.—Duncan D. McBean, the contractor and tunnel builder, to-day announced that he would build a roadway tunnel under the North River at a cost of $6,750,000. This offer was made by McBean following the announcement this week by Engineer Davies, of the New Jersey Interstate Bridge and Tunnel Commission, that a roadway tunnel from New York to New Jersey would cost from $10,000,000 to $11,000,000.

McBean is the contractor who constructed the Harlem River tunnel, which he built in sections on land, then floated it to its proposed position and sank it. By using this method of tunnel construction, McBean says, the lives of men which are lost by working under the river, are saved.

"Not only do I offer to build a roadway tunnel between New York and New Jersey at the price I have stated," said McBean to-day, "but I offer to build a passageway that is almost fourteen feet wider than that used as a basis by the commission's engineers. My tunnel will be wide enough to accommodate trolleys." He also declared that his plans called for a stronger and safer tube.

TO PRESERVE COUNTY ROADS.

Board of Supervisors of Amelia Issue Special Order.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Amelia, Va., April 3.—The Board of Supervisors met in special session to-day and issued an order authorizing the posting of notices to the effect that on and after May 1 the county roads shall have the protection given them by law. When the roads are wet and soft after heavy rains or wet spells it will be unlawful to carry loads weighing over 1,000 pounds, nor shall the roads be used between April 1 and December 1 of each year for one day after the fall of such heavy rains or wet spells, except for the hauling of the products of farm industry.

This is done to prevent the wanton destruction of the roads, as is now done in wet weather, will result in benefit to all parties.

Mrs. T. R. Hardaway, Mrs. R. H. Bruce and Miss Jennie Palmer are delegates from the Amelia Chapter to the Fifth District convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy, which begins its meeting in Farmville to-morrow.
